Service Delivery Areas

Four Child Care Resource and Referral Agencies (CCR&Rs), located across Kansas, provide services to all 105 counties. Together, we offer many services for families, child care providers and community members.

Our referral center makes finding quality child care programs quick and easy for parents and families.

For child care providers and early learning staff, professional development opportunities and resources are available.

For local communities, supply and demand data paints the picture about child care.

These are just a few of our many services for more details about all of the work we do, please contact your local CCR&R.

Enter to Win!

Is your child care provider profile out of date? Call us today! Update your profile and/or your vacancies and your name will be entered to win a Walmart Gift Card! We will draw names every quarter. It's easy to win!

In order for your name to keep going out to parents looking for child care, your profile needs to be updated by September 30, 2014. When profiles are not updated every year, Child Care Aware® of Kansas cannot refer parents to your child care.

When you call in to update your provider profile, some of the information you will be updating for the Referral Center is: years of experience, hours of care, rates, age range of children in your care, your vacancies and what ages, the environment of the home or center, the philosophy used, if you take special needs, CPR and First Aid certified, and if you take DCF/SRS.

Call Megan at 1-855-750-3343, email megan@ks.childcareaware.org, or print off a blank profile on our website at www.ks.childcareaware.org/one.html and mail it in.

The Creative Curriculum® for Infants, Toddlers, and Twos: Understanding that Each Child is Unique

Being aware of children's individual life's circumstances, temperaments, and language help you understand that events that may affect children's development and learning. All children need to feel included and successful. This session offers many strategies for support children.

Enhancing Emotional Literacy

Participants will learn how to enhance emotional literacy using the curriculum from the Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL) for Infant/Toddler/Preschool.

I am Moving, I am Learning Module 1

Early Childhood programs play an important role in preventing childhood obesity, supporting motor development and promoting good nutrition. The "I am Moving, I am Learning" approach provides strategies to improve the quality of physical activity and nutrition choices for young children and their families.

Introduction to Strengthening Families

This course will provide an introduction to the Strengthening Families approach which centers on shifting the focus from risks and deficits to strengths and resiliency. The course will also provide an awareness of the Protective Factors framework and how it promotes optimal child development by utilizing strategies to build upon parent strengths.

Responsive Environments and Routines

Participants will learn how responsive environments and routines can be used to provide support for young children's appropriate behavior. This information will come from the Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL) curriculum for Infant/Toddler/ Preschool.

Chicka Chicka Boom Boom: A-Z Around the Room

Learn how to apply a cross-curricular approach using the book Chicka Chicka Boom Boom. Participants will come away with activities and ideas in the areas of early literacy, math, science, music & movement, and art. Strategies on how to apply the ideas and information presented in this session to other books will be discussed.

Class Descriptions

The Creative Curriculum® for Infants, Toddlers, and Twos: Building Family Partnerships

To serve children well, providers must develop partnerships with families. In a true partnership created to benefit the child, families and caregivers participate equally in the relationship and communicate regularly. By being familiar with the unique characteristics, strengths, and priorities of each family, providers can find ways to build the trust and respect that are necessary to this partnership.

PCAN: Building a Healthy Brain

The development of the brain begins at conception and continues across the life span. Child care professionals support and promote very young children's healthy brain development when they use relationships, respect, repetition, routines, and responsive interactions—the "5 R's." In this session, participants identify ways to purposefully use these five strategies in their work with very young children and their families.

The Creative Curriculum® for Preschool: Dramatic Play

Dramatic play is central to children's learning and development. In this training, participants will explore ways of creating a dramatic play area for children to learn and explore as they engage in dramatic play.

The Creative Curriculum® for Preschool: Toys and Games

When children explore, experiment, discover, and create with toys and games, their problem-solving skills and creativity are enhanced. In this event, participants will take a close look at toys and games and how they enhance every area of development in children. Participants will learn types of toys and games that are appropriate for preschoolers and ways to support learning.

Family to the Center of Our Focus

This course will provide an introduction to the Strengthening Families approach which centers on shifting the focus from risks and deficits to strengths and resiliency. This course also looks at the importance of family in the lives of children and how the two go hand-in-hand. Understanding the well being of a child is linked to the well-being of the family and one must also identify the vital role the environment plays in supporting all families

Practical Strategies to Build Resiliency in Children

This course will provide an introduction to the Strengthening Families approach which centers on shifting the focus from risks and deficits to strengths and resiliency. Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) is a critical component in building resiliency in children. SEL begins with looking at feelings and how they are important. Exploring the Happiness Equation, learning strategies to increase flexible thinking and understanding optimism and pessimism will assist with understanding and promoting SEL.

PCAN: Social-Emotional Development of Infants, Toddlers, and Their Families

Social-emotional development begins at birth and continues throughout life. The foundation for healthy social-emotional development laid in the first three years helps a child establish meaningful relationships with parents, caregivers, and peers and supports his or her learning, both in and outside of school. When children experience difficulty in acquiring social-emotional skills, they are at increased risk emotionally, developmentally, and academically.

The Creative Curriculum® for Preschool: Sand and Water

Sand and water play touches all domains of learning. Learn new strategies to support children's development and learning through a variety experiences in sand and water play.

Eco-Healthy Child Care

Research increasingly shows that the first years of a child's life are extremely important in shaping their future health and development. Child care providers can make small changes that make a big impact on the children in their care. Participants will learn about several types of chemicals and the health impact they can have on children. Participants will also learn how to reduce children's exposure to toxins and provide environmentally healthy, low-toxic toys, art supplies and child care settings.

PCAN: Building Collaborative Relationships with Families

Early childhood and child care professionals build partnerships with families as an important strategy to promote healthy child development. These partnerships can help prevent child abuse and neglect. Building effective relationships with families is the foundation for these partnerships. This unit supports relationship building with families by helping providers to define and practice active listening skills and to understand both the concept of the parallel process in relationships and the importance of reflection. It also aids participants in developing strategies for establishing effective relationships with families.

Building Social Emotional Foundations

Rock Solid Foundations is a blended curriculum of the Infant/Toddler/ Preschool modules from the Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL) curriculum; based upon the Pyramid Project model; and using the foundational framework and strategies from CSEFEL.

Basic Child Development

Upon completion of this professional development event participants will appreciate the principles and influences of child growth and development and recognize that child development is individual. This session addresses the four domains of child development and identifies benchmarks for each area of development for birth through six years of age.

Working with Temperaments

Just as children come in all shapes and sizes, so does their temperaments. With whom do you work best? What kinds of temperaments are there? All these questions and more will e answered in this session.

Social Connections, Meeting Concrete Needs in Strengthening Families

This course will provide an introduction to the Strengthening Families approach which centers on shifting the focus from risks and deficits to strengths and resiliency thereby building the Protective Factors. Social connections and support systems for families are very important in building the Protective Factors. One must first understand ways to help families establish social connections and access concrete support in times of need. Building an awareness on how social connections and concrete support promotes optimal child development and build family strengths.

Safe Slumber: Creating a Safe Sleep Environment

The Safe Slumber presentation defines Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) and Sudden Unexpected Infant Death (SUID), identifies how to create a safe sleep environment, become familiar with SIDS/SUID and what steps educators, parents and child care providers can take to reduce SIDS and SUID. Participants will discuss definitions and statistics of SIDS/SUID and address bereavement issues related to infant mortality

Child Abuse and Neglect with Abusive Head Trauma

Become familiar with the different types of child abuse and neglect and what it means to be a mandated reporter. Participants will get tips on how to prevent child abuse and neglect including shaken baby syndrome.

"Sense" ational Infant and Toddler Environments

Infants and toddlers explore their environment using all of their senses. Participants will learn new and creative ways to engage infants and toddlers through creating environments and experiences that stimulate all senses.
